

THE BENJAMIN F. SHAMBAUGH AWARD

The State Historical Society of Iowa is pleased to announce the winner of the 2010 Benjamin F. Shambaugh Award. This annual award recognizes the book judged as the most significant book on Iowa history published during the preceding year. It is named in honor of Benjamin F. Shambaugh, for forty years the superintendent of the State Historical Society of Iowa, professor of political science at the University of Iowa, and one of the founders of the “new social science” at the turn of the century. This year’s award goes to:
